Dear Miss Unwin,

Thank you for your letter of July 12 in which you informed me that the Editor had been very interested to read my letter of July 7 and that he had forwarded it to your writer of the story upon which I had commented.

I am looking forward to hearing further from you on this matter, especially in the light of recent writings in the U.S. press, not the least of them being the comments of Richard Goodwin, an adviser to the late President, who belatedly concurs with my conclusion of a year and a half ago that the job expected of the Warren Commission has not been done and must be.

Sincerely yours,

Harold Weisberg
